Johnny F. Corrado Receives Certified Investment Management Analyst Designation

PHILADELPHIA, August 18, 2009 – Morgan Stanley Smith Barney announced today that Mr. Johnny F. Corrado, a Second Vice President, Financial Advisor, Senior Investment Management Consultant and CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER (CFP®) in the firm's Wealth Management office in Philadelphia, has earned the Certified Investment Management Analyst, or CIMA® professional designation. Mr. Corrado has worked at Smith Barney since 1998.

As one of the premier designations in the industry, the CIMA® offers an intense educational experience focusing on asset allocation, manager search and selection, investment policy and performance measurement. Candidates for the designation must successfully complete a course of study offered by the Investment Management Consultants Association (IMCA®) in conjunction with either the Wharton School of Business at the University of Pennsylvania or The Haas School of Business at the University of California, Berkeley. They must also adhere to the IMCA® Code of Professional Responsibility and are required to undertake continuing professional education to maintain the certification.

Morgan Stanley Smith Barney, a global leader in wealth management, provides access to a wide range of products and services to individuals, businesses and institutions, including brokerage and investment advisory services, financial and wealth planning, credit and lending, cash management, annuities and insurance, retirement and trust.
