Whether you are a private individual or an institutional trustee, the complexity of today's capital markets heighten the need for professional, experienced investment advice. The Certified Investment Management AnalystSM (CIMA) certification/designation is earned by only those Financial Advisors that have completed an extensive training course and a rigorous exam. CIMA[®] advisors can assist you in establishing suitable objectives, developing appropriate investment strategies and selecting appropriate investment options. To work with a professional who has earned the certification that represents the experience and knowledge you need in today's environment, please contact me.
